

LANGFANG, CHINA

2017 CQHA

International Invitational

2nd China Quarter Horse Association International Invitational!

If you missed your opportunity to participate in the 2015 China Quarter Horse Association International Invitational, don't miss this chance! The China Quarter Horse Association is now accepting applications for 10 spots to compete in a Barrel Racing, Pole Bending and Timed Ranch Trail special event! The competition will take place just outside of Beijing, in Langfang, and arrangements will be made for sight-seeing around Beijing's sites during your visit.

Seeking 10 exhibitors from 5 countries

10 spots will be filled on a first come, first serve basis. The China Quarter Horse Association will cover round-trip airfare and local accommodations. Exhibitors will compete on borrowed horses also have a chance to win a small amount prize money. Exhibitors must positive ambassadors for the American Quarter Horse and their native countries, and willing to compete in all three events. Exhibitors should plan on being in Beijing from June 21-27. Schedule subject to change.

Interested?

Expressions of interest must be made through AQHA International Affiliate. Exhibitors are responsible for all passport and visa expenses. The China Quarter Horse Association will assist with logistics and coordinate all travel while in China. Please submit exhibitor bio and passport copy ASAP to dsnodgrass@unbridledchina.com

CHINA
QUARTER
HORSE
ASSOCIATION