BY SIGNING, YOU:

- Agree to abide by all AQHA rules and regulations, including but not limited to Rules SHW220, SHW225, SHW235 and SHW240;
- Understand that AQHA will only recognize one Showing Lease at a time for a horse;
- Understand that in order for a horse to be shown according to a Showing Lease, the Lessee must be responsible for the following expenses associated with the care of the horse: boarding, feeding, routine farrier services and routine veterinary services;
- Understand that, during the term of the showing lease, only the lessee and lessee's IMMEDIATE FAMILY may show the horse. The lessee's trainer may also show the horse during the term, but only in open division events. During the term of the lease, the horse may be shown by other eligible exhibitors in Open Division, Level I and/or Rookie classes only.
- Understand the term of the lease must be for a minimum one year period, and the lease must be to an individual only. If the lease is terminated for any reason before the minimum one year period, the horse can only be shown in the Open Division, Level I and/or Rookie classes until one year has passed since the original start date of the lease (except as provided by the International Lease for World Championship Show rules);
- Understand that AQHA will NOT accept or recognize a Showing Lease for those purposes other than those set forth in SHW240. Specifically, a Showing Lease does NOT grant a Lessee or their agent authorization to sign breeder's certificate(s), stallion breeding reports, or registration applications for the horse; AND
- Understand that during the Term of the showing lease, AQHA will not record subsequent changes in ownership until the Showing Lease is terminated.
- Understand a Show Lease may be terminated without show restrictions before the minimum one-year requirement in the event of the death of the lessee or with a lease termination penalty of $1,000. Any points earned during the lease period will not count toward qualifying for any World Show or Year End Awards after termination of the lease.
- Understand that if lessee qualifies the horse for and intends to exhibit the horse at an AQHA world show, a showing lease MUST be in effect and on file with AQHA at the time the lessee (1) enters the horse into the world show and (2) exhibits the horse at the world show. Should a showing lease expire prior to the above times, a new showing lease will be required.
